

WWW.LABOURFILMS.CA

CLIFF

Canadian Labour International Film Festival
THE WORLD OF WORK AND THOSE WHO DO IT

SATURDAY, 24 NOVEMBER, 2012

2:30 p.m.

The End of The World	19m
HEIST: Who Stole the American Dream?.....	76m
Learn How (Mathe ergati pos).....	12m
6 Short films	18m
Trading Places.....	8.10m
Fantasy Bosses	1.17m
Jenny's New Job	2.14m
A Day in the Life of Your Taxes	1.26m
It's About Respect.....	3m
Dude, You Need a Union	2m
We Are Wisconsin	89m
Ensayo de una revolución	29m
PANEL DISCUSSION

SUNDAY, 25 NOVEMBER, 2012

2:30 p.m.

Under the Red Star	79m
Brothers On The Line.....	80m
1913 Massacre	65m
"We Just Come to Work here"
The Music of Harry Stamper	8.13m
PANEL DISCUSSION

SATURDAY, 1 DECEMBER, 2012

2:30 p.m.

Tamam Gol.....	30m
Living As Brothers.....	90m
Milk, Honey and Tomatoes	25m
The Killing Floor (re-released 2012).....	118m
PANEL DISCUSSION

SUNDAY, 2 DECEMBER, 2012

2:30 p.m.

2 Revolución	84m
Drink 'Em Dry	48m
Les gardiens du risque	29m
The Philosopher Kings	70m
PANEL DISCUSSION

@labourfilms

facebook.com/labourfilms

info@labourfilms.ca

1913 Massacre

May 15, 2011, anonymous faces and voices recover public spaces to express their outrage, to meet and begin to build peaceful alternatives by moving from idea to action and achieve real change.

The End of The World

2011 • 15m, Chris Downs: The House of Films, Spain, English, Spanish, English subtitles Documentary

"The Economic Fall" has brought hunger, war and despair to what is left of society. A solitary man in search of work and food, rummages his torn-down city, encountering other survivors of the crash.

Fantasy Bosses/Employeurs de rêve

2012 • 1m17s, Alyya Ahmed, CUPW Canada, English, French, Documentary Comedy
To encourage members to mobilise on May Day 2012 against the Harper government's attacks on workers' rights, CUPW produced a short satirical video and posted it on the National President's blog.

Les gardiens du risque (The Guardians of Risk)

2012 • 29m, Mélanie Pittelaar, EPFL - ESPRi (Valérie November) Switzerland, English, French (with subtitles), Documentary
Behind their screens, operators keep watch around the clock to ensure that risks don't become disasters and that our networks and systems - air and road traffic, electricity, weather forecasts, natural disasters, etc. - run smoothly.

HEIST: Who Stole the American Dream?

2012 • 76m, Frances Causey and Donald Goldmacher, Frances Causey and Donald Goldmacher, USA, English, Documentary
A documentary about the roots of the American economic crisis, and the assault on working class citizens in the US. HEIST reveals the crumbling structure of the US economy - the result of four decades of deregulation, job outsourcing and taxes favoring mega-corporations and wealthy elites.

It's About Respect

2012 • 3m, Robin McKenna/Martin Trainor, Robin McKenna/Martin Trainor, Canada, English, Short
New union leader seeks support for a strike by private radio workers in St. John, NB

Jenny's New Job

2012 • 2m14s, Brent Phillips-Watts, Brent Phillips-Watts, Canada, English, Short
Jenny gets a preview of her new job and discovers she'd better join the union a.s.a.p.

Ensayo de una revolución (Essay of a Revolution)

2011 • 30m, Antonio Labajo & Pedro Pablo Sára, Antonio Labajo & Pedro Pablo Sára, Spain, Spanish (with English subtitles), Short Documentary, Cerdit

The Killing Floor (re-released 2012)

possible by a job creation appendix in CUPW's Collective Agreement with Canada Post. The program increases members' access to the technical trades jobs in the postal system. Last year, the program reached full gender parity among students.

Under the Red Star

2011 • 79m, Kelly Sackson, Ron Harpelle, Canada, English, Finnish, Docu-drama
The Finnish Labour Temple was a place for union organisers, strong-minded women, athletic children, actors and even poets.

We Are Wisconsin

2011 • 12m, Sifis Stamou, Kostas Stamatopoulos, Sifis Stamou, Kostas Stamatopoulos, Christos Giannou, LOKOMOTIVA film collective, Greece, Greek (with English subtitles), Short
A film that is both a grotesque denunciation and a call for change. For a workman to break his chains is the result of a process of awareness and radicalization of his thought.

Living As Brothers

2011 • 90m, Kevin Fraser, Kevin Fraser, Canada, English, Documentary
Living As Brothers looks at the lives of Jamaican migrant workers who come to Canada each spring to pick fruit.

Milk, honey and tomatoes

2011 • 25m, André Kloer, Maike Broos, March 21 AV Productions, Netherlands, Arabic (with English subtitles), Documentary
Zidan, quits school and goes to work as a tomato picker in the Israeli settlements to earn some money for his family and to start a shop with his best friend Rachman. But when Rachman decides to go back to school, Zidan works in a settlement that has been built on confiscated land once belonging to his father.

Tamam Gol

2011 • 30m, Peyam Zinalabedini, Fatemeh Ahmadi, Iran, Turkish, Persian, Documentary
A film about an old woman living in a western village of Iran called Yaramieh Bagh like her ancestors. The villagers believe that only a son can keep the name of his family alive. A man who has no son is regarded [as] sterile. The father asks Tamam Gol to wear boy's clothing from her childhood, accompany him in the fields and help him in farming.

The Philosopher Kings

2009 • 70m, Patrick Shen, Transcendental Films, USA, English, Documentary
The movie goes deep into the most well-respected and prestigious universities to seek wisdom from the people who see it all and have been through it all: the janitors.

Trading Places/Changer de place

2011 • 8m10s, Alyya Ahmed, CUPW, Canada, English, French, Documentary, Short
A profile of the MAM-11 training program, which is made

